1. Moderator of a 1 hour group for two years, 100 plus hours.

Inmate Watson has been the moderator of the Thursday night Yokefellows Group for about two years. He is an able moderator, keeping the topics for consideration interesting, and the discussions to the point. He has a genuine interest in other people and is diligently studying to prepare himself for the ministry, whenever he is permitted to rejoin society. Having observed inmate Watson critically for over two years, I must conclude that his life demonstrates the transformation he claims God has affected in his life. I would have no qualms about choosing him as a deacon or elder in my church, and I feel that he would be a most welcome and valued addition to any enterprise he becomes a part of.
