NAME and NUMBER WATSON CHARLES B-37999 10-218L

CDC-128-B Rev. 4/74

Mr. Charles Watson has attended an 8-week 1 1/4 hour course on "Life's Healing Choices." This curriculum has been developed by Celebrate Recovery, a Christ-centered 12-step program designed to help men heal their "Hurts, Habits, and Hang ups." It is an intensive self examination class. Mr. Charles Watson has learned that, hurt people, hurt people. Some topics covered were:

- 1. Admitting Need-The Reality Choice
- 2. Getting Help-The Hope Choice
- 3. Letting Go-The Commitment Choice
- 4. Coming Clean-The House Cleaning Choice
- 5. Making Changes-The Transformation Choice
- 6. Repairing Relationships-Relationship Choice
- 7. Maintaining Momentum-The Growth Choice
- 8. Recycling Pain-The Sharing Choice

Mr. Charles Watson is to be commended for his commitment to this life-changing program. He has consistently given his time, and input to this class.

NAME and NUMBER WATSON B-37999 B-10-218L

CDC-128-B Rev. 4/74

I am writing to commend Inmate Charles WATSON, B-37999, for his service to the Protestant community. From 1995 through January 2008, Inmate WATSON taught a weekly Bible Study, and oversaw a weekly Christian book review, which utilized books donated by various Christian ministries. From March 2005, through January 2007, he oversaw the Mending the Body program, an evangelical outreach in Facility-B. Beginning in January 2008, he devoted himself to completing a Bachelor Degree in Business, which he completed last year. He has been devoted to improving himself in a Biblical manner. He has been an active participant in Christian 12-Steps, and in other self-help groups. Most importantly, Inmate WATSON has served as minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, evangelizing on the yard and in the buildings. I appreciate the service he has provided this program.

Inmate WATSON, B-37999 has completed Phase 1 of the 12 Week class: "Overcoming Emotions That Destroy," which uses a book of the same title by Chip Ingram and Dr. Becca Johnson. The topics covered were understanding anger, triggers, ways we respond, attitudes, profiles, spewers, stuffers, and the costly consequences of anger.

Mr. WATSON served as the Faciliator for this class. He shared his childhood experiences, present relationships, answers to questions, and how he handles emotional events, past and present. He has gained understanding of his spiritual identity, and how his inner man (thoughts, choices, and emotions) affects his outer man (actions and behaviors) for healthier relationships.

He is to be commended for the effort he made to ensure the success of this class.

Inmate WATSON, B-37999 has completed Phase 2 of the 10 Week class: "Overcoming Emotions That Destroy," which uses a book of the same title by Chip Ingram and Dr. Becca Johnson. The topics covered were anger profiles (spewers, stuffers, and leakers), why we struggle with anger, and how to face the root causes and weed them out.

Mr. WATSON served as the Facilitator for this class. He participated in class discussions, and question and answer sessions about anger being the "tip of the iceberg" or a secondary emotion to deeper rooted primary emotions, such as hurt, frustration, insecurity and fear. He learned to acknowledge anger, backtrack to the primary emotions, consider the cause and determine how best to deal with these in relationships. He is to be commended for the effort he made towards recovery in Christ through his participation.

I am writing to commend Charles Watson, B-37999, for his help in making the Protestant Chapel Program a success in Facility-B. During the past twenty months I have been assigned as the Protestant Chaplain at Mule Creek State Prison, Inmate WATSON has assisted with Sunday Services, acted as a counselor to other inmates, and provided useful advice to me. He has conducted two in-depth Bible Studies, one on "Overcoming Deadly Emotions" and one on "Why Grace Changes Everything." He has worked hard to maintain a consistent and valuable Christian program. I greatly appreciate the work he has done and his demonstrated dedication to his own Christianity.

The above named inmate has completed an eleven (11) week class on THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES, Pt. 1, taken from "The Life Recovery Bible". The book of Acts records the actions of the apostles during the early church. Through their examples, this inmate saw that the Holy Spirit has the power to change lives in recovery. By Peter's example, he learned that God can transform lives from an impulsive and unreliable person to a bold and dedicated leader. Though serious mistakes and bad choices were made as a younger man, this inmate has been gradually changed. This transformation demonstrates what God can do in ones life.
