Operation Care

This presentation was given by two program specialists/victim advocates from Operation Care and the teenage survivor of a sexual assault and her mother. They discussed information regarding the support and services provided to victims of domestic and sexual violence by their agency. Offenders had the opportunity to personally hear the toll suffered by this innocent victim of crime. For many offenders, this was the first time "victim experience met offender perception". This presentation provided offenders with information regarding the societal costs of domestic and sexual violence and an opportunity for the development of offender empathy as a result of hearing an actual victim impact statement. As participation was voluntary, this inmate is to be commended for his willingness and effort to increase his awareness of the impact of crime on individuals.

Partnership for Re-Entry Program (PREP)

This presentation was given by Sister Mary Sean of Sisters of Mission San Jose (DMJ). PREP purpose is to provide support to inmates in their focus and efforts toward re-entering communities. The relationship with PREP begins with contact with the Catholic Chaplain who explains PREP and Offers an application to the inmate. PREP began as a simple mentoring program to three inmate correspondence programs, to hundreds of referral letters and calls, to five houses for former lifers. Sister Mary Sean spoke of the need for inmates to be responsible for their choices no matter the circumstances of their past. She also spoke of the need for inmates to actively participate in the self help programming as a way to prepare for release as well as a means for living a productive life within prison.
