

PROTESTANT CHAPEL Ministry Requirements

“But let these also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, being found blameless. For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus” (1 Timothy 3:10, 13).

- Must be a man whose life is above reproach.
- Must be faithful to God, the pastor, and the brothers.
- Must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation.
- Must be friendly and be able to teach and reflect wholesome teachings.
- Must not be addicted to the world and the flesh or be violent.
- Must be gentle, not quarrelsome and not dishonest with money.
- Must be able to manage his own life well. For if a man cannot manage his own life, how can you take care of God’s church.
- Must not be a new believer, because he may become proud, and the devil would cause him to fall. Also, people outside the church must speak well of him.
- Must be well respected and have integrity.
- Must be committed to the mystery of the faith and must live with a clear conscience.
- Must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.
- Must be an example to others by doing good works of every kind.

“And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ” (Ephesians 4:11–12 NKJV).
